CHURCH LOSES

Arkansas Rules Presbyterian Gets All Property.

Little Rock, Ark., July 12.—The state Supreme Court held to day that the union between the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., and the Cumberland Presbyterian church, in 1906, was valid and that the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., succeeds to the title of all the property held by the Cumberland Presbyterian body.

This decision differs from that of the courts of Tennessee and Missouri which held the churches united on a common faith, but retained their identity as to property right.

PICTURES ARE O. K.

Officials See No Need of Excluding Pictures.

Washington, Ind., July 8.—"I certainly will not attempt to interfere," said Mayor McCarty when asked whether he would allow moving pictures of the Jeffries-Johnson prize fight to be shown in the picture theaters of the city.

"There is but a remote possibility that the exhibition of the pictures would lead to any demonstration in this city," said the mayor, "and as there is nothing immoral about the films I see no reason why I should step in and prevent them being exhibited to Washington audiences."

Prosecutor Hastings said: "So far as I am concerned, no effort will be made to put a quietus on the pictures."

Chief of Police McCrisaken branded the objections as "poppycock."

Grandmother Gives Birth To Twins.

Pittsburg, Pa., July 8.—Mrs. Mary Rielly, sixty years old, of East Pittsburg, gave birth to twins. The event is the fourth of its kind that has happened during the married life of the Riellys.

Mr. and Mrs. Rielly came to this county from Ireland in 1868, when the first child was born, a boy who now has several children of his own. Boys and girls followed in rapid succession, until now there are twenty living children, including the new arrivals. Both children are boys, and weigh four pounds each.

Mrs. Rielly is in perfect health, and sees nothing remarkable in the event. Mr. Rielly, the proud father, is three years his wife's senior, and has worked in the rolling mills in Pittsburg since he came to this country. He is now foreman. The event will be celebrated in a few weeks by a reunion of the whole family, including the many grandchildren.
